

GREAT January Sale Of Ladies Muslin Underwear For one week only IS NOW ON

This sale will be the greatest sale in the history of the local retail business and will offer unprecedented opportunities to obtain Muslin Underwear at Sacrifice Prices.

Our Entire Stock Of SKIRTS, NIGHT GOWNS,
CORSET COVERS,
DRAWERS and CHEMISES
Will be closed out at a
TREMENDOUS REDUCTION

Certain lines that we are discarding to make room for new season's novelties and a quantity of odd lots, will be marked at prices which will be so low as to be almost unbelievable.

Sale Prices Strictly Cash
Don't Fail to see our Window Display
N. S. SACHS
Dry Goods Company Ltd.
CORNER FORT AND BERETANIA STREETS.

We have just received new supplies of

"Ushers G. V. G." Scotch Whiskey
BUCHANANS "BLACK AND WHITE"
AND
"RHODERICK DHU"
W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd.
AGENTS

Fresh Meats

Fresh meats required for your daily use,
You will find at YEE HOP'S in profuse.
The old saying is, the best is cheapest;
We have the cheapest, best and freshest.
Call on us and get your money's worth,
Then with the wise you will have a berth.

C. Q. YEE HOP & Co.
MEAT MARKET
TELEPHONE MAIN 251.

AIR CASTLES

are built in the mind but a mind is needed to build a building and the mind must be that of an architect who understands his profession. I understand the building of beautiful, modern, artistic buildings and can verify this statement by showing you the plans of buildings formerly erected by me.

W. MATLOCK CAMPBELL
Telephone White 951

J. LANDO

TRUNKS
HATS
AND C/TS
CLOTHING
SHIRTS
AND UNDERWEAR
PAJAMAS
AND NIGHT SHIRTS
SUIT CASES

102, FORT ST., I. O. O. F. Bldg. & 151 HOTEL ST., opposite YOUNG Hotel.

DON'T FORGET HAWAII NEWSPAPER AT SEA

MEMBERS OF COMMERCE CONGRESS TO GET LETTERS

SECRETARY WOOD IS SENDING OUT LITERATURE TO ALL
THESE PEOPLE, 1,000
IN NUMBER.

Secretary H. P. Wood of the Promotion Committee was prepared a letter which he is mailing to every member and delegate of the Trans-Mississippi Commerce Congress. There is about 1,000 of these men and they are scattered through every state this side of the Mississippi river. Mr. Wood himself is a member of the congressional committee of the congress. In addition each will receive Hawaii's literature giving them any information they might desire.

The letter is as follows:
"I am just in receipt of a copy of the official proceedings of the last session of the Trans-Mississippi Congress. I deeply regret that it was not possible for me to be present, but having just accepted a call to take charge of promotion work in Hawaii I was naturally quite busy preparing for the change.

"Not having had the pleasure of meeting you at Portland and noting your address in the report above referred to, I take great pleasure in acquainting you with my removal to Hawaii, and under another cover send you illustrated matter descriptive of our beautiful islands.

"On February twenty-second next, Washington's birthday, we will inaugurate an Annual Mid-Winter Floral Parade, one of the most interesting features of which will be scores of native women, dressed in the old time riding costumes, the pa'u.

"It will be the chance of your life for novel kodak pictures.

"Why not decide to make the trip? The steamers are large and comfortable.

"The seas are smooth.

"The hotel accommodations of Honolulu are excellent.

"Come if you possibly can.

"At any rate when we meet at Kansas City in 1906 do not forget Hawaii.

"Yours very truly,
"H. P. WOOD, Secretary,
"Hawaii Promotion Committee."

COULD IT BE TRUE

He was a dusky islander from Hawaii, and he hung around the palm garden of the Palace Hotel for two hours endeavoring to get into communication with Assistant Manager Mullan. Finally he got into communication with Assistant Manager Mullan.

"I have a very pleasant Christmas surprise for you," he said, introducing himself to Mr. Mullan. "You see, my mother was here at the Palace Hotel just a year ago, and she was greatly fascinated with the big Christmas tree you had in the court at that time. When she returned to Honolulu she quite decided in her own mind that she had made her last visit to California. You see, she is 71 years of age now. But she also made up her mind that if she lived to see another Christmas she would send you some presents for your tree. Well, she has not forgotten, and there is a big consignment aboard the steamer Korea down at the Mail dock, if you will send for it."

"That's very kind and thoughtful," said Assistant Manager Mullan. "What are the presents?"

"Well, there are a lot of bananas and coconuts."

"Oh, very fine!"

"And pineapples."

"Lovely!"

"And poi, and suckling pigs."

"Huh?" responded Mr. Mullan, in some alarm.

"By the way," said the dusky Hawaiian, "could I borrow half a dollar from you until tomorrow?"—Chronicle

PASSENGERS ARRIVED.

Per O. S. Sierra, from the Colonies, Jan. 8.—For Honolulu: John W. Neal, Mrs. John W. Neal, Robert J. Richmond, Mrs. Robert J. Richmond, Edward Reddell, Mrs. Edward Reddell. Through passengers: Harold Ashton, L. Kirkby, H. Beatty, Mr. Brunin, Mrs. Brunin, Frank D. Brown, Mrs. Frank D. Brown, D. Clinton, Mrs. C. W. Cook, Sidney Clementson, Mrs. Sidney Clementson, George Campere, A. V. Donnellan, Mrs. A. V. Donnellan, C. Fleming, Albert Gran, H. S. Hallet, H. Hill, Miss Jennings, A. Kelly, Mrs. Kelly, Miss Kelly, H. Lewis, J. Lindsay, Mrs. Geo. R. Mair and child, Harry Musgrove, George Musgrove, Miss Nancy Musgrove, Miss Neilson, J. F. Pettie, Mrs. J. F. Pettie, Miss Nellie Stewart, W. H. Stuckey, E. D. Tupper, Miss Willard, Leslie Wood, G. C. Walker, Miss L. Barrington, R. Booth, Geo. W. Crendon, Miss R. Cohen, Miss Ada Dell, Edward Davidson, Miss M. Gray, Henry Hughes, Mrs. Henry Hughes, R. Lowe, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Myers, Mr. Fool, Miss Sherwood, Master Sherwood, Mr. Sherwood, Mr. Slattery, D. Street, W. S. Smith, Mrs. M. Smith, F. Tozer, Miss E. Wilcox, Mr. Young.

It will not create very much surprise that the gang has been able to induce Joseph B. Foraker to come to its rescue. He represents Machine politics of the most pronounced type. He is a product of the Cincinnati Machine, which ranks with the Machine in this city and Tammany Hall. Of the three Tammany is the most amenable to public sentiment, because it occasionally gets beaten when it is too bad. The Philadelphia and Cincinnati Machines have not been checked in their offensiveness by an uprising of moral sentiment. The Machine here is going to be, and some time the Cincinnati Machine may have a little decency hammered into it by defeat.—Philadelphia Record.

SIBERIA HAS ONE ON LAST TRIP TO ORIENT

FRANK E. PIXLEY, COMIC OPERA
MAN, AND HIS WIFE, AND OTHERS ARE CON-TRIBUTORS.

During the S. S. Siberia's last trip from Honolulu to Yokohama a number of newspaper men issued a paper, known as "The Siberian Chestnut." The following was written by Frank E. Pixley, author of King Dodo and other comic operas and who is writing a musical comedy with the first act in Honolulu:

The poets can sing as much as they please,
Of life on the ocean wave,
But it all depends,
On the way, my friends,
That the sea and the ship behave.

When the 'skies are clear, and the sea is calm,
I don't mind a trip like this;
Never miss a meal,
And begin to feel,
That I know what pleasure is.

But when the waves pile up, and the ship gets drunk,
And those meals will not stay down,
How I long for a spot
In some vacant lot,
Or a garret in any old town.

The late Captain Smith of the Siberia had a pup on board that became a great favorite among the passengers. With reference to it Mrs. Pixley contributed the following to the paper:

TOPSY.

I am a lively little maiden, though my age I will not tell,
But I'm old enough to fall in love, as the captain knows (full well),
I like to nestle in his arms, and to kiss his finger tips.

Oh, we while away some pleasant hours, upon these ocean trips.

The captain knows I love him, though I've never told him so,

In fact, I've never said a word; he's guessed it, don't you know.

I cannot make his jealous, though sometimes I've really tried,

And often when he's sound asleep, I flirt upon the side.

The passengers adore me, but I show them at the start.

That my big and handsome captain, has a mortgage on my heart.

Of course I know I'm rather small;
I'm just a tiny pup;

But when I'm big enough to fight, do you think I'll give him up?

Among other contributions was one headed: "Advertisements," and calling attention to a model ship now building. The advertisement read, in part:

"We beg to announce the building of a Model Ship, which will be ready for service by the time passengers on the 'Siberia' are ready to return home. Among the advantages the Model Ship will offer, attention is called to the following: 1. The waiters will not be permitted to wear night gowns while serving dinner; 2. The kitchen and machinery will be located in the fifth story; 3. The officers will be seasick during bad weather, instead of the passengers, who have paid their money for a good time; 4. Passengers will be permitted on the bridge; 5. Cows and chickens will be kept on board and fresh milk and eggs served. Also cistern water. Breakfast will be announced by the crowing of roosters, instead of by beating a gong; 6. When a ship's officer says a witty thing at table, convulsing the ladies about him, he will arise, and repeat his remark, for the benefit of all, as jokes by ship's officers, like bishop's jokes, are always good; 7. Horses and huggies will be provided in which passengers may take long rides in the surrounding country; 8. The only motion of the Model Ship will be straight ahead, at sixty miles an hour; the roll and pitch will be dispensed with; 9. The sailors will be railroad brakemen and the ship's whistle a locomotive whistle, instead of the hoarse variety now in use on the 'Siberia'; 10. In case there is a writer of comic operas on board the Model Ship, he will read his latest work to the passengers."

Close by—A 5-cent plate of ice cream.

REM NANT SALE

IN DRY GOODS
MONDAY, JANUARY 8th.
PACIFIC IMPORT CO.

A Word About The Metropolitan Magazine for 1906

WITHOUT reservation it can be claimed for The Metropolitan Magazine that today it stands pre-eminent in its particular field and is an essential in every refined home in the land. Under efficient editorial management, its pages each month provide entertainment and mental recreation for an ever increasing multitude of readers. The coming year's list of contributors includes no name not familiar to those informed on all literary matters.

Keeping pace with The Metropolitan's literary excellence are its not able art features. Superb reproductions in color, the work of artists of world-wide reputation, will make its pages unique. There will be other exceptionally beautiful art contributions in black and white.

What follows is merely a suggestion of what The Metropolitan Magazine coming to you twelve times during 1906 really means.

The best of everything in every department of literary activity and artistic production will be yours. A serial of absorbing interest and numerous short stories and poems, illustrated in a way that materially adds to their meaning are in each number.

The Metropolitan Magazine

Twelve times in the next twelve months for One Dollar and Eighty Cents, or at all newsdealers and booksellers at Fifteen Cents a Copy.

THIS FINE MAGAZINE IS GIVEN FREE TO A NEW SUBSCRIBER TO THE EVENING BULLETIN FOR SIX MONTHS AT $4.00.

He Knows They Are Not.

Mrs. Benham—The paper tells about a man who stole a head of lettuce and then went back and got another, being arrested on the second trip.

Benham—I'll bet you can't make that fellow believe that two heads are better than one.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Champ Clark, the Missouri Congressman, looks upon District Attorney Jerome of New York as the coming man in the Democratic party. "He is likely," Clark says, "to shoot—by Bryan, Folk and other men nearly as prominent in the race for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1908. If Jerome attends to his job and attempts to send those insurance men to prison he will go to the top just as leveland did."—Utica Press.

The ratio of pauperism in London has risen from 21.8 per 1,000 in 1890 to 26.4 in 1905.

Our Leader
KOLA MINT
There are imitations, But
Ours is the only GENUINE
THE ORIGINAL
We Have all Other Flavors Also
Consolidated Soda Water Works, Ltd
TELEPHONE MAIN 71

IT'S
Rainier BEER

I DID, I DO,
I WILL ALWAYS
SWEAR RAINIER
BY FOR
REFRESHMENT
AFTER RECREATION.

RAINIER BOTTLING WORKS
Honolulu. Phone White 1331

PACIFIC TRANSFER CO. WILL CALL FOR YOUR BAGGAGE

We pack, haul and ship your goods and save you money.
Dealers in STOVE WOOD, COAL and KINDLINGS.

Storage in Brick Warehouse, 126 King St. Phone Main 58

Aloha Company

BUILDING and PAINTING CONTRACTORS. House furniture of all kinds repaired and varnished. Yard and lawn work a specialty. Tools furnished. Cooks, Yardboys and Day L. borers supplied on short notice. Office, GREEN HOUSE, S. King st. Walkiki road. Tel. White 2401.

Weekly Bulletin $1 Per Year